

Envoy Lives in Russia Like in Gold Fish Bowl

By Sigrid Arne
WASHINGTON, March 20.—(AP)—Suppose you were a second secretary at the American embassy in Moscow. You could tell your wife what was going on at the office only if you did one of two things:
1. Motion her into the bathroom, turn on the water, fall face down and tell her what you wanted to say.
2. Go for a walk, wait until you hit a broad place in the street, make sure no one was directly on your heels, then spill it.
Because of listening devices in your home, of course.
Besides that there would be Russian guards at the doors of your office and your apartment. They would report on who called on you, whether Russian (which is practically never) or other nationality.
Details of the agreement are to be made public tomorrow in Washington and London.

Officials said the agreement calls for Britain to take between 20,000 and 40,000,000 pounds of dried eggs. That is equivalent to more than 1,000,000 eggs in shell form.
The agriculture department now holds about 8,000,000 pounds of egg powder, the equivalent of about 3,000,000 eggs.

HOLDING PRICE
These eggs were taken off the domestic market under price support programs for the purpose of holding up farm prices, which are accumulated over a period of a month or two.
The agriculture department's problem has been how to get rid of them. It has offered to give them away to public and private welfare agencies for relief feeding of needy persons in this country and abroad. So far, the takings under the give-away programs have put only a tiny dent in the total supply.

Wheat Pact Is Finalized

WASHINGTON, March 20.—(AP)—The United States will get the biggest share of an increase in export quotas under the international Wheat Agreement. This results from Germany's admission to the pact.
Germany was admitted at a meeting of the International Wheat Council at London last week. It was given an annual quota of 67,000,000 bushels, which it may import under the agreement.
The agreement, which was put into effect last Aug. 1, is designed

Margarine Brings Depression To Canada, Dairyman Claims

By Brian O'Leary
Special to the Bulletin
MONTREAL, Quebec, March 20.—(BUP)—Continued legalized sale of margarine could possibly bring about an overall economic slump in Canada in the coming year, J. H. Duplan, National Dairy Council president, said today.
He said Canadians had lost over $70,000,000 during the past year with the legalized sale of the sickly-colored butter substitute, and were slated to lose more.
Duplan launched his attack against margarine in the annual presidential report to the National Dairy Council's three-day convention. The council represents a $600,000,000 Canadian industry, as for the immediate year ahead, Duplan said:

"It is possible that if present price differentials prevail, margarine will result in an even greater surplus of butter than last year, and an even greater drop in farm purchasing power."
"A reduction in this purchasing power of tens of millions of dollars can have but one result—reduction of output of manufactured goods and services which farmers and their families require, and a consequent increase in unemployment in such manufacturing and service industries."

Soviet Bomb Progress May Speed U.S. Plans

By George E. Reedy, Jr.
Special to the Bulletin
WASHINGTON, March 20.—(UP)—Congressional sources said today that Russia's ability to make A-bombs may force this country to put its civilian defense program into high gear two years ahead of schedule.
"That is one of the purposes of our present hearings," said one member of the joint congressional atomic energy committee. "We want to find out whether action is necessary now."
The committee is holding public hearings to establish the state of the nation's civil defense against atomic attack.
Most informed estimates before Sept. 23, 1949, held that Russia would not have an A-bomb until 1952 at the earliest. But on that date President Truman announced

Atom 'Certain' To Drop On U.S. Leahy Declares

WASHINGTON, March 20.—(AP)—Admiral William D. Leahy said today that the United States had adopted "an ethical standard common to the barbarians of the dark ages."
It is a "practical certainty" that A-bombs will be used against Americans, he said.
Leahy also says in his book, "I was there," that in January, 1944, the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt received an intelligence report indicating that the Germans were getting secret American atom secrets from Russia unwillingly leaked by vice-president Henry A. Wallace.
Leahy says, however, that the information would not have been of any great military value.

OTHER EVILS SEEN
As for the long-term prospects with continued use of margarine, he said that "with a jelling up of butter and other surpluses year after year, dairy farmers will ultimately reduce dairy herds to the point where milk supply approaches the meagre reduced demand."

Two Top Scientists Sought in U.K.

British and U.S. Agents Comb Both Countries

Special to the Bulletin
LONDON, March 20.—(BUP)—Two top American atomic scientists have disappeared and are being sought by British and American agents in connection with the Fuchs case, the London Daily Graphic reported today.
A dispatch in the newspaper said agents may be made on both sides of the Atlantic within two or three days.

According to the newspaper, government agents want to question the two men regarding their relationship to Dr. Klaus Fuchs, German-born British scientist sentenced to 14 years in prison for revealing atomic secrets to Russia.
Both men were among the top scientists at Harwell, the big British atomic center where Fuchs was head of theoretical research, the Graphic said.

A supply minister spokesman denied the scientists were missing from Harwell. Scotland Yard also denied the report. A Yard spokesman said "we have no knowledge regarding any story of the disappearance of two American-born atom bomb scientists."

"Two top-level United States-born scientists have suddenly disappeared from Britain," the Graphic dispatch said.
"They are believed to have gone to the United States and the Federal Bureau of Investigation has been asked to find them."

"Scotland Yard's special branch is working hard to find out the reason for the two scientists' disappearance and wants to know more about their relationship to Fuchs."
"HIGHEST CATEGORY"
"Both men are scientists in the highest category of atomic research."

"They have been in Britain for some months and had access to much of the secret work being carried on at Harwell."
"A long code message about them went from Britain to the United States security headquarters in Washington yesterday. It contained a statement of all their activities since they came to Britain."

"A highly-placed informant said arrests on both sides of the Atlantic might be expected within two or three days."

WENT TO SCOTLAND
"One of the scientists is believed to have travelled to Scotland and then made his way south to the Liverpool docks, where he may have boarded a liner."
"At conferences during the week-end, special branch officials of Scotland Yard discussed the possible theory that one man was suffering a breakdown in health due to overwork and had lost his memory."

"It also was considered possible both men were lured from their posts by false messages from abroad."

Bread Trial
Of Six Firms
Opens Today

CALGARY, March 20.—(BUP)—A preliminary hearing got underway today here of six Western bakers and one trade association charged with combining to prevent or lessen competition in the production or distribution of bakery products.

The hearing before Magistrate G. H. Rose is expected to last nearly two weeks.

Named in the charge are: Canadian Bakers Limited, Calgary; McGavin Bakesies Limited, Winnipeg; McGavin Limited, Vancouver; Western Bread and Cakes (Canada) Limited, Winnipeg; Edmonton City Baking Limited, and the Bakery Employees' Association of Alberta, Edmonton.

ARTISTIC tendencies of F. A. Mason, veteran, tried to oil painting, cabinet making and even decorating cakes. Thursday's own birthday cake will have 81 candles.

ALLEGATIONS IN CHARGE

The charge alleges that "between Aug. 1, 1933, and Dec. 31, 1940, both inclusive," the companies "did conspire, combine, agree, or arrange together," to "unduly prevent or lessen competition in the production, sale, transportation, or supply of bread and other bakery products."

The companies allegedly conspired to "prevent or lessen competition" at Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge, and Medicine Hat, in Alberta.

And in Regina, Moose Jaw, Swift Current, Saskatoon, Prince Albert, North Battleford, and Yorkton, in Saskatchewan.

And in the said three provinces.

On Thursday though, he will leave the cake decorating to his daughter. That will be his day off to celebrate his birthday.

Mr. Mason came to Macoun, Sask., in 1910 and a year later came to Castor. The next year he decided to homestead and came by ox team to the Veterans area.

He moved to the village a few years later and in 1929 accepted employment at the Oliver Irrigation. He is now living with his daughter, and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ballentine of Veterans.

In spite of having lost the sight of one eye a few years ago he is able to operate a lathe and do other skilled work in his shop he has fitted up.

Besides his daughter in Veterans is a son in Edmonton, F. L. Mason and another daughter, Mrs. James Noble of Dawson Creek, B.C.

Plantation Workers
Riot In Jamaica

KINGSTON, Jamaica, March 20.—(CP)—Four sugar plantation workers were wounded and four arrested today as rival trade unions fought a pitched battle on the Worthington estate, near here.

The battling workers set camp on the estate and several acres were burned over before the blaze was brought under control.

The fight started when the Trades Union council challenged the right of the rival Bustamante Industrial Trades Union to represent the estate workers.

The estate's management has refused to deal with the TUC.

The Bustamante union is headed by William Bustamante, minister of communications in the Jamaica government.

TAKE $9,000

Boys' Roll Is Too Big; They're Sick

By GIB STALEY

PITTSBURGH, March 20—(UPI)—How do these kids feel when they're fancy-free and have a $9,000 roll of bills in the jeans?

The kids themselves tell you: Nick Palermo, 11, "Boy, it's really something. I never thought Dad had that kind of dough!"

Paul Youlan, 12, "Well, I ate so much I got sick. We bought everything we could—chop suey, hamburgers, hot dogs—everything."

Michael Manning, 13, "I was scared. I was worried someone would hit us on the head and take the money."

The three youngsters, all residents of Erie, Pa., were apprehended early Sunday in downtown Pittsburgh.

In a push hotel suite they were about to go to when Nick turned on the new radio he bought. The news blared fourth: "Police are looking for $9,000 and three boys in Pittsburgh."

"We got out of that hotel in a hurry," Nick said. We started to walk out of town. A couple of cops picked us up."

Officers at Central police station counted what remained of the money taken from a closet in Nick's home. It added up to $9,000.

Nick's father, a tavern owner, declared: "I believe I had between $10,000 and $20,000 so the boys didn't spend too much when you come to think of it."

Parents On Tour

A second phase of the air force sponsored project, Dr. Henry Levinson said, is the possibility of using "heat-guided" missiles, probably on strategic industrial targets.

Naval Officer Injured In Fall

STRIKERS Counter Squeeze in Italy

Communist Headquarters Warns Of Grave Civil Strife Ahead

MILAN, Italy, March 20—(AP)—Thousands of Communist-led workers quit work suddenly today and packed Milan's main squares in a protest demonstration against strict new government measures to keep order in Italy.

Union leaders in both Milan and Genoa were reported considering a general strike call as a further protest.

Crowds of workers—many carrying red banners—poured into the Milan square at mid-day, snarling traffic and delaying street cars and buses. Demonstrators stopped one train entering the city, delaying it for an hour.

Large forces of police were on guard but took no action to disperse the crowd, which thinned out after a speech in the main square by Communist Secretary Giuseppe Berlinguer.

Many workers returned to their factories but did not resume work. The only reported violence up to noon was an attack by a group of demonstrators who roughed up Associated Press photographer James Pringle and seized his camera. Pringle took refuge in private home.

Similar demonstrations took place in Bologna, Florence and Genoa, where the walkouts closed factories and stopped streetcars.

The action of the Milan workers was seen as the first move in a Communist and pro-Communist Socialist opposition to the new orders from Premier Alcide De Gasperi's cabinet.

The new decrees, issued Saturday, increased the national police force and authorized local prefects to call public meetings for the next three months.

The regulations also banned union meetings within factories and forbade advertisement of party communications or performances in the streets by anyone except authorized newspaper vendors.

Following announcement of the decrees, Communist party leaders in Rome warned in a communiqué of "grave civil strife ahead."

Police Probe Asks U.S. Aid

WINDSOR, Ont., March 20—(UPI)—The Windsor police commission's public inquiry into "allegations of corruption" adjourned Saturday to seek possible evidence from Detroit police.

Mayor Arthur V. Haszard directed Crown Attorney A. Douglas Bell, of Shelburne, Ont., inquiry counsel, to go to Detroit to "ask for permission to go through police files and take out anything that might be of assistance in this inquiry, bring it back and make it public."

Newspaper reports had hinted that Harold S. Toy, former Detroit police commissioner, might be invited to testify. Toy insisted in Detroit he had not been formally invited.

LAXITY HINTED

Magistrate J. A. Hauran's recent judgment against bootlegger Joseph Asari hinted at police laxity here and touched off the probe. It also hinted that Windsor was the centre for an international racing news service.

Asari, now serving a maximum 18-month sentence for keeping a place for sale, testified that at no time did he sell or give liquor or beer to any member of the Windsor police force.

Flyers Had It In Clutch

Monday mumbblings . . . and whatever became of defenceless who could carry the puck from end to end?

By turns the team were good and bad. Still Flyers proved Stamps could be had. Personal report on that Saturday night scuffle at the Gardens: As they have so often in the past, Flyers rose to the occasion, their feat of beating off the Cowboys from Calgary being all the more remarkable, considering they were just coming off a two-week layoff. The shock-troop brigade of Watt, Young, Pettigrew and Lane, particularly, turned in as close to their best effort of the season. Up front the Anderson-Clovechok-Merluk unit caused Julian Sawchuk and his rear-guard mates on the Stamps the most headaches, this despite the fact the trio failed to come up with a goal.

The Cowboys, reported to be a vastly improved hockey squad under the benevolent guidance of Messrs. "Butch" McDonald and Lloyd Turner, certainly brought more get-up-and-go to their labors than on most previous visits this season to Soldout Stadium.

They checked back in spirited fashion and Sawchuk, especially, made the road to the goal something less than a joyride. However Stamps were anything but potent on the offensive.

'I Was Misquoted'

Just for the record: In a Saturday once-over-lightly on the Flyers, we were quoted to the effect that netminder Ray Frederick "has played brilliantly all season." The boys in the composing room booted this one. What we wrote was that the young man in question had "played steadily, if not brilliantly." Behind the cloth of protection he got all winter—at least at the Gardens—the boy from Fort Frances hasn't been able to opportunity to demonstrate whatever brilliance he may possess. Of course Stamps may accommodate him before the current series is over.

Add down-memory-lane: Just about 20 years ago now burly Bob Brown was a front-line pitcher with Webb King's Stockyard Bulls, who operated at Boyle street diamond when that "stadium" was the centre of baseball life in these parts. Brown, now a resident of Toronto has a son, Bob Jr., likewise a thrower. Just last week New York Giants inked Brown the younger to a contract and he'll pitch for the Yankees this season . . .

Whatever became of Helge Bostrum? Do you feel tired and run down in the morning? You do? Then imagine how Bostrum, the one time touring Blaque of the international tennis world, must feel after several tough sets. Bostrum, despite his 51 years, still gets in his competitive kicks, currently being engaged in the U.S. national open tournament.

Today's orchid is being reserved for Louis Holmes & AC Jewellies, brand new provincial champions in that puck division.

Mr. Wray, of Cochrane—or Edmonton?

One of the Flyers is celebrating his 30th birthday today. Guess who? . . . Sympathy of sport fans will go out to schoolmaster Ernie Simpson over the fact that his wife in a city hospital Friday. Simpson skipped an all-teacher rink to the city of the Grand Challenge at the annual Alberta Curling Association bonspiel, played here last month. . . . It's in the works; any day now general-manager Ken Samis will announce that his Cal's Dodgers of the Big Four Baseball league have signed a catcher out of the Saskatchewan semi-pro ranks. And when Samis releases the bad boy's name, he is bragging that "he's a better catcher than Gus Kyle ever thought of being." . . . Add from the press-box: Calgary scriber He McLean and Kip Fox, accompanied Stamps to the city for Saturday's contest.

Portrait of a man who is strictly from left field, in this instance, says Arthur Wray, M.L.A. for Cochrane who, in the legislature the other afternoon, took a belt at the proposal to form a Northern Alberta Jockey club. Presumably Mr. Wray was elected to the first place on the understanding that he would look after the interests of his own constituents. How comes he gets himself mixed up in one?

Most regrettable development of the past 10 days was decision of John Ducey to go back to the name "Esquimaux" for his ball club, instead of Oilers. How much longer are local teams going to perpetuate this name "Esquimaux" for their club?

METHERAL RINK WINS G.C. IN ELKS SPIEL

Metherral defeated West Brown 11-10 and 9-6 to win the best-of-three final in straight games. Other members of the Metherral rink were Charlie Cummins, Russell Stewart and Archie Wetherstone.

Other Elks' curling action yesterday featured the visit of eight country rinks to Edmonton for a "Fun Bonspiel" with curling clubs in the first place on the wins. Edmonton five, Sanguo four in thisspiel. Other towns represented were Mayerthorpe and Leduc.

PLAY NORWAY TODAY

Mercurys Close Fast To Shut Out U.S. 5-0

LONDON, March 20—(CP)—Edmonton Mercurys came up with a four-goal surge in the third period to shut out United States 5-0 Saturday night.

Mercurys, after tripping the Americans, ruled odds-on favorites to bring to Canada the world crown which the Czechs are not defending.

Bob Watt battled in a loose puck late in the first period to give Canada a 1-0 lead. But the Americans came out as good as they get in a free-swinging, far from scientific battle.

A stick passing play that set up a goal by Al Newson at 7:15 of the third period, made the two Commonwealth countries were the only ones with undefeated records in the tournament.

Britain came from behind to surprise Sweden 3-4 and Switzerland 2-1 in the two Commonwealth countries were the only ones with undefeated records in the tournament.

Mercurys were down on the ice during U.S. and Sweden home three more goals in the next seven minutes to wrap it

DOWN THE HAT

Juvenile Honors To EAC Squad

MEDICINE HAT, Alta., March 20—(CP)—Edmonton Athletic Club, coached by Louis Holmes, won the Alberta Juvenile hockey crown here at the week-end, downing Medicine Hat Riverdale Monarchs 17-1 in a two-game, total goals series.

Monarchs surprised the visitors to win 4-3 in the first game Saturday night. It was the first loss of the season for the EAC's 23 players. But yesterday it was a different story.

A free-for-all which involved all players except the two goalkeepers, highlighted the rough and tumble third period of the second game.

In the first game, EAC's took a 1-0 lead in the first period but Monarchs rallied to score the lone tally of the second period and drew two more in the third session.

Kim Craves, Bob Kell, Doug Wilson and Fred Hall scored for Medicine Hat Saturday night. Hall, Dick Day and Hans Kowalchuk registered for Edmonton.

Series resumes here tonight and then shifts to Lethbridge for games on Wednesday or Thursday. Medicine Hat — Nova Scotia: Merv Bregg, Doug Manick, Gordie Cowan and Paul Little were the other Pat Markens. Bregg and Little were sent to share the honors with Dave Lee. Bregg, with two, and Joe Wood and Billy Day, Edmonton, were Lethbridge goalkeepers. Shifty Gilder, Kaur's star centre, who gained 100 points in League play, was held to one assist.

'Sp'iel Honors To Graffias

Jimmy Graffias skipped his Alberta College rink to the north side high school boys curling championship Saturday, thus winning the Derry Derangement trophy.

Graffias won Section B in the early play and then defeated Derry (Victoria) Composite of section A and Glasgow (Highlands) from section C in the playoffs. He had it easy, too, drubbing Olson 12-3 and Glasgow 12-4.

BOUNCY BARONS KNOCK OVER FIVE RECORDS

CLEVELAND, March 20—(CP)—Cleveland Barons defeated Indianapolis Capitals 5-4 Saturday night to end up their regular schedule with a collection of five American hockey league records.

The Barons, western division champions, won 45 games in a 76-game schedule, scored 357 goals, made 100 points in the standing, won home games, and led the entire league by a margin of 21 points.

Tom Sloan, Ray Ceresino, Pete Lewick, Steve Kraft, and Hymie Buller scored the Cleveland goals, while Don Morrison, Gordon Haidy and Gerry Reiz notched the Indianapolis markers.

Standout performer was Detroit's Gordie Howe, who fired three goals to raise his season's total to 24.

Tim Lindsay, league's top scorer, earned three assists to raise his total to 76. Highest in NHL history for any Detroit player.

Ontario Given Plan For Own Conservation

TORONTO, March 20.—(CP)—Ontario today got a down-to-earth blue print for tackling its conservation problems.

A nine-man committee of the Ontario legislature tabled its 65,000-word report on a year-long study of soil depletion, drainage, flood control, reforestation, demonstration farms and soil analysis.

JACOBY on Canasta

FOR BEGINNERS—3

A meld at Canasta consists of three or more of a kind. For example you are allowed to meld three or more aces, three or more kings, three or more queens, and so on.

Sequences do not count at Canasta. Thus, king-queen-jack of the same suit are useless to you, and so are any other sequences.

There are eight of each kind in the Canasta deck—eight aces, eight kings, and so on. We will eventually see that you get special rewards for seven of a kind, but we can let that go for the moment.

12 WILD CARDS

To make your melding easier, there are twelve "wild" cards in the deck: the four jokers and the eight deuces. If you have a wild card, you can let it take the place of any of the "natural" cards.

For example, instead of melding three aces, you are allowed to put down just two aces and one wild card; or, instead of three kings, you may put down two kings and one wild card, and so on.

Wild cards are not allowed to run riot with your wild cards. Every meld must include at least two natural cards, and no meld (except for a few special cases that we can forget about for the moment) may include more than three wild cards.

NOT A MELD

In other words, a queen and two wild cards is not a meld; you cannot say that it represents three queens. However, two queens and one wild card would be all right; and two queens and two wild cards would be good; and even two queens and three wild cards would be allowed. That's the limit. Two queens and four wild cards would be too many.

There is no limit to the number of natural cards you may have in a meld. There are eight of each kind in the deck, and you're allowed to use all eight of them, if you want to do so.

Save these special installments. If you're a beginner, you'll soon be able to profit from the list given in the second part of each article. If you're an experienced player, save the first half to teach the game to others.

FOR EXPERIENCED PLAYERS

We have seen that there are many advantages in making the first meld for your side. There are also disadvantages. Therefore the good player must balance one against the other and see whether he is going to come out ahead or behind.

The chief advantage of melding the first time is that it takes cards out of your hand. The more cards it takes out of your hand, the more cards it takes out of your opponent's hand. Therefore, before the meld, and if you wind up with only four or five cards in your hand, you are usually in good shape.

It's quite different, of course, if you can pick up some discards as you make your meld. Then you can meld and still save a goodly number of cards in your hand.

BIG REASON

The big reason for wanting a meld is that it is the only way to force the deck. When a full hand freezes against a half-deck hand, the full hand is an odd-on favorite to win.

There's another reason to win. There's another reason. When you hold a full hand, the odds are against you. They're shooting in the dark. The moment they put a few cards in your hand, they have some definite information and there's less for them to guess about.

The game of checkers is thought to have been played many centuries ago, since checker sets have been found in tombs of the Pharaohs.

Rebels Helped In Caribbean

WASHINGTON, March 20.—(AP)—Officials of three Latin American countries were accused today of tolerating—and in some cases assisting—military plots organized in their territories to overthrow neighboring governments.

The accusation was leveled by a special investigation commission appointed last January by the Council of the Organization of American States to investigate charges of revolutionary plots and counterplots in the Caribbean area.

It found that some Dominican Republic officials aided a recent conspiracy to overthrow President Duménil of Haiti.

BEIJING'S KING, Leopold III, who is living in exile in Switzerland, is now awaiting decision of Netherlands parliament on question of his return to throne. Prevented from returning as king after war, Leopold said he would abdicate in favor of his 19-year-old son, Prince Baudouin, if he received less than 55 per cent of votes in recent advisory referendum. He got 57 per cent. His wife is shown with him.

Journalist Scores Setup Of Economy

MONTREAL, Que., March 20.—(AP)—Canada's businessmen were told today to wake up and learn the political and economic facts of life by M. Gratian O'Leary, vice-president of the Ottawa Journal.

Speaking to the National Daily Council of Canada, O'Leary said it was time businessmen awakened to the fact that Canada has no such thing as a free economy. He also challenged them to take a more active life in the country's politics.

What we possess instead of a free economy," he said, "is a hodge-podge of tariffs, subsidies, controls, price-ceilings and price-floors, all bred by compromises and expediencies, all operated by boards, bureaus and bureaucrats."

"All this," O'Leary declared, "was the very antithesis of a free economy."

Failure to understand this, with use of out-worn phrases and labels, gave to our economic discussions and debates an air of unreality, making it all the more difficult to find solutions of our problems, he said.

Salad Onions Here In Red, Green, Yellow

By Bea Thrifty

We gals who pride ourselves as hostesses are merrily like this these pre-spring days.

We're busy dreaming up all kinds of tasty 'n' attractive party salads... making use of the newly arrived, colored salad onions. Maraschino cherry colors of scarlet, green and a bright yellow now come to us in uniform sized pickled onions.

They're to use on hors d'oeuvres trays... or to perk up an otherwise nondescript-looking salad. I'm mighty partial to them myself... even if they're a mite costly.

Remember me enthusing about the new tropical fruit salad business... well now... have you had a taste of the succulent paw-paw?

It's just a bit like cantaloup, a bit like sampling were dreamed about... and a bit expensive. We pay 45 cents for a large tin of same tropical paw-paw.

But I do think it has kind of a silly name don't you?

For many a moon I've been perusing the local shops in frantic search of the chopped olives... chopped green olives that is.

They're a blessing to have tucked away in your frig to use as salad toppings, sandwich fillings (as in spaghetti casserole), in spicy sauces... oh a million 'n' one ways.

Huzzah! I cried... when just this very week-end I found a fair-sized jar sitting at 45 cents. That's back in a quiet dignified manner.

There was no infatue, no tastering... just anticipation of tantalizing tidbits.

Have you had your first feed of new potatoes yet?

When the Florida red-skinned made their initial appearance in the price vetted much sampling. They're still a couple of notches to a 5 cent per pound level... which is still above the proud price of most of our budgets.

But extravagant of me splurged last night... and we feasted on campy old potatoes. I do think it was wrong of me to have insisted this long don't you?

Now I have to fight against fancying up a fine avocado 'n' pear salad... with avocado still going at 14 cents each rating.

When I listen to the faint whine of spring promises... cream tangerine dreams of those luscious strawberries we're so fond of.

A happy-faced hucker of fruit 'n' vegetables assured me we'd be dining on fresh strawberries 'n' cream before the end of this merry month of March.

I'm buying a satin cushion to sit on while I eat my first dish.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Child Should Be Told Right Word for Objects

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Children build up their vocabulary by being told the right word for every object which they are interested. Adults have a tendency, it seems, to want to talk down to children, to make it easier for them by using a made-up word or a simpler word, when the right word, attached to an object, is immediately the child notices it, cut his learning in half.

I notice how interested my 2-year-old grandson is in words. No matter what the length of it he repeats it carefully, wonderingly, and then afterwards uses it as familiarly as if he had always known it.

Mrs. J. writes, "Lately a topic of recent interest has been our son's acquisition of a vocabulary. He is 20 months old and has mastered 200 words. He speaks most distinctly with the exception of words containing double 'f' and double 'c' sounds such as 'tr' or 'dr'. Do you have any valuable suggestions on this subject of vocabulary development?"

When we expect him to speak in sentences? He does use two or three words in this fashion ('Johnny, love, play') I am trying to teach him two languages. What the best way to go about doing this?"

He is unusually precocious now to have so many words in his vocabulary. In a few months he should be speaking fluently in sentences though he may not use so many verbs as nouns, and may confuse his pronouns.

Unless you use simple language in the home regularly it would be unnecessarily confusing to the child to be taught two words for every object. I would concentrate on the language you use most and let him become proficient in that. If you speak another tongue, then, being curious and intelligent, he will probably want to know what you are saying and explaining to him should make him familiar with those words and phrases, too.

My mother is not old and is in good health. She belongs to no club, goes nowhere and has little work to do, so I see no reason why she shouldn't help me out now and then. How can I put it up to her diplomatically?

MRS. JIM.

ANSWER: This is not a case for diplomacy. It is one where brutal tactics are called for. You have to cut with a knife, not a spoon, and so I think you should put up taking care of the children as a business proposition to your mother.

Tell her that you are going to use the money that you give her every week in employing some one to look after the children while you and your husband step out, and that if she wishes to earn it, you would prefer to give her the job. Perhaps if she felt she was being paid for keeping an eye on the children she would not object to it so much.

MOTHER'S RESPONSIBILITY

Of course, primarily a woman's children are her own responsibility, and it is up to her to take care of them in the main. She has no right to dump them on her mother half a dozen times a week while she goes off to amuse herself.

Any woman who has raised her own family of children has done her share of baby-sitting, and it is her turn to spend her afternoons playing contract instead of giving Junior his sun bath and keeping Johnny from getting into mischief with automobiles and playing dolls with little Mary.

But, on the other hand, mother can save daughter's reason and keep her from a nervous breakdown, from quarrelling with her husband, by taking the children home with her for a few hours now and then and giving daughter a chance to relax and rest and get a new viewpoint by going out among the brittle lights.

SOME OF THE finest animals in the country are displayed at Edmonton's spring livestock show. This is a good example of type that draws breeders and buyers from distant points.

Bilingualism Enables Canada Train Allies

OTTAWA, March 20.—(CP)—Canada's bilingual population is the basic foundation for a scheme that is expected to bring hundreds—and, over the years, thousands—of foreign military officers to this country for advanced training.

That was one fact that became clear in the wake of Defence Minister Clesinger's announcement that Canada has invited her Atlantic Pact allies to send a total of 250 officers here for specialist training. Most will come from western Europe.

One stipulation the government made in letters to some eight capitals is that the men must speak English or French.

Canada, the defence department feels, can absorb that many at one time in the army and RCAF schools, and courses already established without providing any extra facilities and can train them in either language.

Canada is probably the only country among the 12 pact nations that has this bilingual background. The figure of 200 is not necessarily a hard-and-fast one. It is a tentative limit, the government feels should be accepted at any one time. In other words, the target is to have roughly that many here at any given time. But there may be 200 here occasionally and at other times the total may fall to 50 or less.

They will be scattered through various schools and units. Some will come for six, eight months others for 12 or 18. Over a period of years, the number will undoubtedly run into thousands.

IN FRANCE

Surplus Girls Lead to Men Being Lonely

PARIS, March 20.—(AP)—France has a surplus of 2,000,000 women, but the French male is careful before he takes a matrimonial leap. Divorce is hard to obtain in France.

Numerous other weekly and monthly publications include such ads.

Curiously, 70 per cent of the ads are placed by men. "There is a 'club of the timid' founded by a man, devoted to 'sponsoring honest marriage between people with a healthy body and a healthy mind'."

The publisher of a lovely hearts magazine called "Marriage for All" says: "Lack of money compels people to be more and more rarely, to entertain places where acquaintances leading to marriage can be made."

"Marriage magazines have replaced, in a sense, parties and dances," said this publisher. He prints 200 ads a month and gets from 4,000 to 6,000 answers. "We've convinced that five per cent of the ads produce a marriage," he said.

Borrowed Blood Fails Boy Of Five

TORONTO, O., March 20.—(AP)—When Richard Brady, five-year-old son of a Toledo grocer, died Saturday of anaemia, he had not one drop of his own blood left in his tiny body.

The boy had undergone more than 150 blood transfusions since he was nine months old. Doctors had injected about 20 salons of borrowed blood into his body enough to change completely his own normal supply 50 times.

Of the presidents of the United States, 18 were of English ancestry, eight of Scottish or Irish ancestry, three Dutch, one Welsh and one Swiss.

Livestock Show Best on Record

Farmers Have Four Days Of Judging, Selling

History will be made at the 39th annual spring livestock show of the Edmonton Exhibition Association which opens in the livestock sales pavilion Tuesday morning and runs for four full days.

"One of the best shows in years, with the widest representation from top-notch western purebred stock breeders that we've ever had," says the association's executive manager James Paul.

ENTRIES ARE HEAVY. Entries for the bull sale have hit an all-time high with 237 animals of championship calibre to be presented, divided as follows:

Hereford bulls, 132; Shorthorn bulls, 102; Aberdeen Angus, 25. Females in the same breeds are: Shorthorn, 17; Hereford, 32, and Aberdeen Angus, 10.

There are 50 more bulls entered than in 1949. For fat stock championship sales, entries are also heavy with approximately 300 animals in all classes.

BIG ENTRANTS. Calf championship brings 35 entries for the junior calves and 22 for open senior classes.

Swine in all classes number 124. Exhibition board officials are highly pleased to have represented in the show for the first time this year, entries from such outstanding breeding farms as the McIntyre and P. Burns ranches in southern Alberta. These are regarded as the biggest names in purebred stock circles in western Canada.

The winning animal sold there for $3,000.

Another popular participant will be Roy Ballhorn of Wetaskiwin with his Poll Angus stock and the Milner-Sher breeding farm, which also has a large Poll Angus entry.

Of course the junior calf championships on the opening day of the show on Tuesday, will be again one of the most popular features of the big spring show.

One of Edmonton's brightest stock shows will start Tuesday.

SASKATCHEWAN MAY EQUAL ALBERTA'S OIL

REGINA, March 20.—(CP)—

The "oil resources in Saskatchewan may eventually be found to equal or surpass those of Alberta," judging by all of the geological information available at this time.

Charles E. Leach last night told Regina Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Leach is assistant manager of an American oil company, Tidewater Associated, with offices in Regina. He said "the sedimentary formations in Saskatchewan are known to be equally thick and also contain a high percentage of organic source material."

Another popular participant will be Roy Ballhorn of Wetaskiwin with his Poll Angus stock and the Milner-Sher breeding farm, which also has a large Poll Angus entry.

Of course the junior calf championships on the opening day of the show on Tuesday, will be again one of the most popular features of the big spring show.

140,000 To Start Census In U.S.

WASHINGTON, March 20—(AP)—The greatest quiz program in history—the 1950 United States census—starts April 1 for a two-week run in the cities and three or four weeks in rural areas.

It will give an estimated 151,000,000 people in the United States (and perhaps 400,000 more in U.S. territories and possessions) their once-a-decade chance to tell the government about themselves in the interests of prosperity and poverty.

To insure that they do, 140,000 question-printed census counters figure to ring 400,000 doorbells, make door-to-door visits to Alaskan igloos—and whatever else is necessary.

Young People Of Today Assure Future Success

Tuesday is the biggest day of the year for several score junior farmers from all over Alberta.

It's the junior calf-feeding competition of Edmonton Spring Livestock Show, which traditionally bring together the keenest and most ambitious of the province's farmers of the future.

Since Jan. 15, these boys and girls from 10 to 18 have been feeding, watering and performing the thousand and one other duties of caring for their livestock.

LOOK TO TOMORROW

Edmonton Exhibition Association officials realize that it's encouragement of today's young farmers which makes for the success of the Spring Livestock Show of tomorrow. They have made certain that every young competitor gets something for his efforts.

There are 10 prizes from $40 to $8 in each of the Shorthorn, Hereford and Aberdeen Angus calf-feeding competitions. In addition, the Association is making an award of $5 to all non-winning exhibitors of calves in each section.

The Alberta Shorthorn, Hereford and Aberdeen Angus Association offer additional cash prizes.

There are the Prince of Wales and Edmonton Exhibition trophies for the top Beef Calf Feeding Competition. These prizes were won 1948, 1947, 1946 and 1945 by Lawrence Kallal of Tofield. He is competing again this year in the Hereford Calves section.

Prizes are offered also for the junior farmers is the judging contest, standing highest in the beef calf contest and for the lead showing three calves in each of twelve Alberta districts and the three sections, boys 10 to 15 years, girls 10 to 15, and girls and boys 16 to 21.

Oil Trade Is Upped

Calgary, March 20.—There was increased action on the Calgary exchange today, with prices showing a slight upward trend.

Canadians Display Confidence in Oil

By C. V. Myers
Bulletin Oil Editor

The confidence of the Canadian public in the future of Alberta oil is demonstrated by the following wire received in Calgary from head office of British American Oil Company:

"Offering so heavily oversubscribed by dealers from coast to coast that the books were closed the first day at four p.m. The opportunity to purchase was not extended to residents of the United States as shares were not qualified under the provisions of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933."

The B.A. refinancing scheme embraced the offering of 400,000 shares of stock at 25¢ per share.

Thus the public of Canada rushed to throw $100,000 cash into the pot in the course of a few hours at a time when the market was given the opportunity.

DOUBLE VALUE
Imperial Petroleum bonds have doubled in value in the course of little more than a matter of weeks.

These events demonstrate the confidence of Canadians in the western oil industry when it is properly handled, soundly guaranteed by the findings of the action on the part of the parties seeking funds for sound and aggressive expansion.

A FAILURE
Imperial's Golden Spike is a failure in the U.S. It is beyond the power of the company to drill at 5,000 feet level.

With a surface elevation of 2,345 feet, the Golden Spike is 3,000 feet below sea level.

The well is now only 30 feet below the water level established at the Golden Spike No. 3 about 3,000 feet below sea level.

This Golden Spike has only one other well in the same vicinity, the No. 4, half a mile north, and the No. 5, half a mile south.

Oil is still drilling to the northwest at 3,885 feet below sea level.

NEW LOCATION
The locations for four new field development wells have been established by the Pacific group.

The Pacific group has selected the sites for the four new wells in the Redwater-Simons area.

The wells are located in the Redwater-Simons area, a quarter mile west of the team's record-breaking No. 2 well.

Near Record In Industrials Seen in N.Y.

By ELMER C. WALZER
Special to the Bulletin

NEW YORK, March 20.—(UP)—Industrial stocks start today in a few dollars of their highs for two decades.

They reacted upward last week when investors and speculators alike abandoned recent caution and climbed the market with a vigor reminiscent of bull market days of 1929.

Current levels have been reached only once since 1930, and that was in 1936, when the industrial average reached $225.50 on May 28, 1936.

In 1935, the market was in a precipitous decline from the 1929 record high of $281.17 made on Sept. 3 of that year. It plummeted to $41.22 on Jan. 8, 1932, and wiped out $1,000,000 in value from the bull market high of 1929.

The current bull market has been in swing since last June 18. It rose steadily into mid-January of this year, when it made its first real opportunity. The rise was resumed after the temporary setback.

Then came a long period of narrow movement with dull trading. Wall Street waited cautiously for a break out of the rut in one direction or the other.

When it appeared as if there were no real selling bearing over the list, it began courage to go higher. Finally, last Tuesday, investors began buying, and the market moved steadily higher.

It was a long time since the market had gained since Jan. 8, 1932, the day after President Truman's inauguration on the state of the union, which Wall Street found less than expected.

Resentment Grows In German Zones

Western Sector Unhappy In Throes of Occupation

By Lyle C. Wilson
Exclusive to the Bulletin

FRANKFURT, Germany, March 20.—(UP)—It has taken Western Germany nearly five years to recover from the shock of military disaster and to begin to challenge occupying forces with words and occasional violence.

It was in May, 1945, that Hitler's Third Reich collapsed under attack of the Allies in the west and the Russians in the east. The German of five years ago was much drunk with disaster and distress. In the weeks after the war ended, rocky GI's commandeered cameras, motorcycles and other loot which suited their fancies. The phrase was that they were "liberating" these articles.

No GI or American civilian would dare do such a thing today.

But, practice, in fact, did not last long beyond the end of the war. But now the situation is more than corrected. It is beginning to be reversed.

GERMANS FED UP

There is scattered evidence here that many Germans are sufficiently fed up with occupation to attempt occasionally to do something about it. Liqueur often is a contributing cause.

The most powerful brake against German resentment of the American occupation no doubt is the Russian threat to the east. At the worst the Americans, British and French of Western Germany are preferable to the police state which the Soviet Union hopes to extend over the entire country.

There is little or no open resentment in the occupied sectors of Berlin where free Germany under French, British and American administration live neighborly and desperately afraid next door to the awesome Russians.

But incidents of violence, threats of violence and spoken challenges to the occupation do turn up in the west, suggesting a trend and perhaps a pattern. It is notable that these symptoms of German hatred or dislike of the occupying forces are limited to the occupied sectors of Western Germany.
